

Dr Annie Kangwa Chewe is a legal practitioner of 25 years standing at the bar. She is aged between 45 and 60 years. She holds an LLB degree from the University of Zambia, an LLM degree in Human Rights and Intellectual Property Rights Law from the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of the Lund University in Sweden and a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree in law from the Africa Research University in Zambia. She also holds a certificate in Intellectual Property Rights in the Global Economy for LDCs and a certificate in Strategic Planning and Management from Galilee Institute of Israel.

From 1999 to 2010, Dr Chewe worked at the National Legal Aid Clinic for Women as an advocate and later as its Executive Director. She is currently a lecturer and Acting Dean in the school of law at the University of Zambia. Over the years, she has also served as Acting Dean at several intervals, Assistant Dean for undergraduate programmes and Acting Head of Department for Public Law. Her research interests are in human rights, constitutional law, administrative law, family law, gender and intellectual property law, among others. She is the author of a text book entitled Administrative Law in Zambia: Cases and Materials (Juta, 2020) and also a book entitled Promoting the Effectiveness of Democracy Protection Institutions in Southern Africa (EISA, 2009). In addition to teaching, she has served the University of Zambia as Honorary Legal Counsel and Board Secretary on the ZAMNET and ZAMREN Boards. In public service, she has served on a number of boards in the past and at present, including chairperson of two audit committees for the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting and the Ministry of Transport and Communication; legal expert on the NGOCC Grant Management Committee and on the University of Zambia Biomedical Research Ethics Committee. She is currently the Chairperson of the University of Zambia Student Board of Discipline, a position she has held since 2008. She was the Vice Chairperson of the Lusaka District Education Board from 2019 to 2022. Furthermore, she is a Member of the ZIALE Council and also a member of the Council of Law Reporting and Chairperson of the Business Committee. Dr Chewe has been a member of the Transparency International Zambia Chapter Board since 2017. She is currently the Chapter Vice President and is the first female Vice President of TI-Z.