

Dr. Chivunda Kaumba - Biography

---

Chivunda Kaumba is currently a lecturer at the University of Zambia in the department of Language and Social Science education. Chivunda holds a PhD in Education and specialises in pedagogy, theory and practices of teaching of Civic Education. Chivunda coordinates the programme for Master of Science in Peace, Leadership and Conflict Resolution at the University of Zambia. He is passionate about governance systems and corruption with focus on modelling methods upon which the young generation can be prepared for future responsibilities free from corruption and other forms of injustice.

Chivunda practices transformative pedagogies that aim at enhancing and improving the role of education in creating citizens' broader knowledge and dispositions necessary to achieving a society driven by the common good through integrity, transparency and accountability in affairs that govern them.