

Kalungu Joseph Sampa's Summary of Profile

---

Sampa is an Organizational Development and leadership development consultant; an experienced process and organisational change facilitator. He is an experienced process facilitator in people and organisational development with a wide range of client/human centred approaches and models that allow people to fully engage within themselves and others in seeking solutions to organisational and environmental challenges.

Sampa is a human rights and social justice activist; he has excellent planning and Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning facilitator.

He is the Chairperson of Zambia Health Educational and Communication Trust (ZHECT) Board; served as Vice Chairperson for the Zambia Extractive Initiative Transparency Initiative for seven years, served as Transparency International Zambia Vice President.

Sampa worked for the Anti-Corruption Commission, Justice and Peace Commission and recently worked with the following institutions; Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO), African Union Commission, Africa's New Partnership for Africa's Development (NEPAD, DFID – ZESSTA, Ministry of General Education, Community of member state in Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA) Rwandan Bio Medical Centre, Zambia Extractive Transparency Initiative (ZEITI), UNICEF, Zambia Open Community Schools (ZOCS), UNODC, GIZ, World Bank, DanChurchAid, UNHCR, Caritas, and, Paralegal Alliance Network among others.

Sampa holds professional qualifications in Organisation Development and Facilitation; Leadership, and academic qualifications in Development Studies and Political Science.

---